PLUMVILLE PICKINGS.

A Harvest of Items Gathered For Preservation By Our Skillful Gleaner.

Miss Eliza Higgen is spending this week with friends here.
Mrs. Mattie Davis made a business trip to Maysville Tuesday.
Mrs. C. M. Redman is through making apple butter. She just made fifty gallons for their own use.
Miss Mabel Bradley of Adams county, O., spent from Saturday until Monday as a guest of the Misses Berry.
Mrs. Rosa Helm returned to her home at Logan's Gap, O., Tuesday, having been called here by the death of her mother.
Mrs. Mabel Davis has had a new chimney built and otherwise improved her residence. Mrs. Davis would be pleased to have every one that is indebted to her to call and pay her.
Mrs. Nancy Hughes, aged 80 years, died of paralysis and general debility at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Ella Wilson, at Pleasant Ridge, on the morning of October 12th. Deceased was born in Lewis county, and has been a consistent member of the Baptist Church for about forty years. Religious services were conducted at the residence by Elder White. Interment at Pleasant Hill Cemetery in the presence of a large number of relatives and friends. The grave was covered with flowers as a last tribute of respect from her friends.

Lay in Coal.

An Indiana prophet says the goose bone is nearly all white this year, and the result will be that snow will lie on the ground from early in December until late in April. A long, cold winter, filled with blustering storms, is ahead. There are other signs that confirm this. Corn husks are unusually thick, and chipmunks and woodchucks are already fat enough to kill. Coal is advancing and gas companies are threatening to raise their rates.

Donville Advocate.

The remarkable number of cures of gout and rheumatism which have followed the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla point conclusively to the fact that this remedy comes nearer being the specific for complaints of this nature than any other medicine in pharmacy.

THE OHIO VALLEY is a majestic field of colors these October days. No painter on earth might mix these colors in such a heroic form, and the design is beyond all words of description. From Charleston to Cincinnati the picture always exists and the river always shines. There is a tumult of crimson in the miles of forest, and wealth of brown and gray give beauty to the fields and hillsides, and up the valley-ways the wild grapevines are laden with purple fruit, and on the persimmon trees the yellow-brown fruit happily shakes its fat form invitingly to all. There is no dust, and the autumn songs that come floating from hill and dale are full of healthfulness. See the Ohio valley again before the melancholy days arrive. See it in all its glorious rioting of colors. There is but one way. Take that excursion train that goes to the Queen City on October 23d. At Cincinnati all of the theaters will be brilliantly opened and the list of attractions are the best to be seen. Tickets will be good on all regular trains except trains 1, 2, 3 and 4. For particulars see small bills or call on C. and O. Agent.

VIRGIN-BELL.

A Thrifty Farmer of Near Concord, Ky., Weds One of the Fair Daughters of That Vicinity Monday Night, October 14th.

This event should have come off on Sunday evening at 7 o'clock, but owing to a severe attack of neuralgia and a badly swollen face the bride-to-be could not be induced to face the large crowd which had assembled in the Baptist Church to witness the ceremony.

The ladies of the village of Concord had taken great pains to fix the church for the occasion. Ferns, flowers and evergreens were set in every conceivable shape, but they were not permitted to see the wedding.

On Monday night the young people, accompanied by a few of their special friends, drove down to Springdale and to the residence of Elder T. P. Dogman and were quietly married.

The groom, Mr. William F. Virgin, is well known throughout Lewis county, and his bride, Miss Emma Bell, is a sister of James Bell, a successful merchant of Poplar Flat.

[Vanceburg papers please copy.] T. P. D.

Captain Steve G. Sharp, Treasurer of Lexington, is $20,000 short. He will settle.

George Briggs of Cowan, Fleming county, has had his pension sawed in two.

Burnett, the new outfielder of the Louisville Baseball Club, is a fireman on the L. and N. Railroad.

The records of the Inspectors show that 250 cattle, belonging to dairymen near Louisville, died of Texas fever during the past summer.

Mr. William Hoel, aged 22, a nephew of Mrs. S. R. Powell of this city, died last week at Dayton, O. His father, Mr. John Hoel, formerly lived in Maysville.

Spence Cooper of The Hazel Green Herald says that it is safe to bet that the man in Cincinnati who had seven gallons of water pumped out of his stomach was not a Kentuckian.

The Courier Journal of yesterday contained this paragraph in its Washington news: "Dexter Kehoe has made arrangements with the railroads so that Kentuckians desiring to go home and vote can leave here on the 23rd and 29th. This will give them time to register."

THE SON OF A PREACHER.

And a Son-of-a-Gun Also in the Knife-Swinging Business.

Bowling Green boasts of possessing the champion knife-swapper. He is a little boy, son of a Preacher, and this is his record as given by his father:

"That boy, not many months since, worried me till I bought him a knife. Like a boy, he left it out one night and it got rusty. Then he lost interest in it and began at once to swap it off. Well, the little rascal has naturally a knack for trading, and, sir, he took that rusty knife, and with a little work on it and a good deal of talking, he succeeded in exchanging it for two knives. These knives in turn he traded for three knives, worked considerably on them and got a cheap watch for the three. He kept trading till he had concluded forty-seven different bargains, most of them in his favor. At the end of the forty-seventh trade he owned a shotgun, a hound puppy, two jackknives and sixty-five cents in money, besides other small trinkets too numerous to mention. There's nothing like it."

"Saved My Life"

A VETERAN'S STORY.

"Several years ago, while in Fort Snelling, Minn., I caught a severe cold, attended with a terrible cough, that allowed me no rest day or night. The doctors after exhausting their remedies, pronounced my case hopeless, saying they could do no more for me. At this time a bottle of AYER'S Cherry Pectoral was sent to me by a friend who urged me to take it, which I did, and soon after I was greatly relieved, and in a short time was completely cured. I have never had much of a cough since that time, and I firmly believe Ayer's Cherry Pectoral saved my life."—W. H. WARD, 8 Quimby Av., Lowell, Mass.
